Hi Jennifer,

Thanks for the update and appreciate the USPS teams reviewing this draft report. I think if we get USPS feedback in the 36-48 hours we can incorporate it. Would that be possible?

Thanks,
Alex

Peter,

I hope this finds you well. I wanted to put something on your radar and see if it might be possible for the USPS team to provide some feedback in the coming days. Executive Order 14019, Promoting Access to Voting, created an interagency Native American Voting Rights Steering Group coordinated by the Domestic Policy Council. The Steering Group was directed to engage in a series of consultations with Tribes on barriers to voting for Native communities, and then produce a report (due March 7, 2022) on those barriers and recommendations to overcome them.

We'd be grateful for USPS review of the report to make sure those portions are accurate and we appreciate any assistance you may be able to provide to facilitate this review. With apologies for the short notice, given the EO's deadline of March 7, we'd greatly appreciate any comments or corrections in the next few days if at all possible.

Thanks,
Alex
